

READY TO HIT THE TOWN?

BOULDER WAS RATED AMERICA'S FOODIEST TOWN BY BON APPÉTIT IN 2010, AND IN 2014 FORBES NAMED IT ONE OF AMERICA'S 5 SECRET FOOD CITIES. IT CONTINUES TO LIVE UP TO THAT REPUTATION TODAY! WITH ALL OF THESE HOT SPOTS WITHIN WALKING DISTANCE TO THE ST. JULIEN, YOU'LL CERTAINLY SEE WHY.

bolder
innovation
forum16

NEED A CAFFEINE HIT

Head to Amante Coffee to savor the flavor of coffee beans from a third-generation coffee roaster from Northern Italy. Or head over to the high-energy, inviting environment enjoyed by locals at Ozo coffee.

Amante :: 1035 Walnut St.

Ozo Coffee :: 1015 Pearl St.

LOOKING FOR A HEARTY BREAKFAST

At Snooze try the Sandwich I Am, a soft pretzel roll filled with scrambled eggs, cheddar cheese, and a sausage patty with a side of smoked cheddar hollandaise. Or head to Lucile's, a hidden Boulder gem serving up Cajun and Creole breakfast and brunch only. Make sure to try the shrimp and grits with a side of pillow-perfect beignets.

Snooze :: 1617 Pearl St.

Lucile's :: 2124 14th Street

INTERESTED IN A FARM-TO-TABLE LUNCH

Enjoy the fresh and locally focused menu at Spruce. We particularly love the "Famous" Grilled Salmon Sandwich with red onion marmalade and horseradish aioli. Or head to the community pub at the Kitchen [Next Door] for the Koberstein Ranch Dry-Aged Colorado Cheeseburger. Yum!

Spruce Farm & Fish :: 2115 13th Street

The Kitchen Next Door :: 1035 Pearl St.

CRAVING DELICIOUS PIZZA

Just walk next door to the Med for a delicious wood-fired margherita pizza. Or take a walk down Pearl Street to Pizzeria Locale for Neapolitan-style pizza. Try the Maiale pizza with tomato sauce, mozzarella, prosciutto crudo, parmigiano reggiano, and arugula, and enjoy watching the pizzas being made in the beautiful Stefano Ferrara oven that was shipped from Italy.

The Med :: 1002 Walnut St.

Pizzeria Locale :: 1730 Pearl St.

HOW ABOUT SOME COMFORT FOOD

Pasta Jay's is a beloved Boulder institution famous for rustic, hearty Italian-American favorites. You can't go wrong with any of the house-made pastas smothered in that famous marinara. For your burger fix, head over to Rueben's Burger Bistro for the Vuelta burger stuffed with fresh mozzarella and sautéed pancetta.

Pasta Jay's :: 1001 Pearl St.

Rueben's Burger Bistro :: 1800 Broadway

HUNGERING FOR A SAVORY SNACK OR LIGHT DINNER

Many of the shareable small plates at The Kitchen Upstairs are served hot from the wood-fired oven. The seasonal flatbreads are always a hit. Or try the small plates with big flavors at Riff's. The gold potato gnocchi are delectable.

The Kitchen Upstairs :: 1039 Pearl Street

Riff's Urban Fare :: 1115 Pearl St.

READY TO HIT THE TOWN?

bolder
innovation
forum16

THIRSTY FOR A MIXOLOGIST'S DELIGHT

Enjoy the craft cocktails and trendy atmosphere at the Bitter Bar, or head over to Salt where you can be your own mixologist with their custom cocktail menu.

Bitter Bar :: 835 Walnut St.

Salt :: 1047 Pearl St.

WANT TO EXPERIENCE BOULDER'S CONTEMPORARY DINING SCENE

Savor the Grilled Beef Short Rib and King Crab Risotto at Oak at Fourteenth. Be sure to try the housemade sodas, too! Or head to the lively Jax Fish House & Oyster Bar for the Butter Poached Lobster Tail.

Oak at Fourteenth :: 1400 Pearl St.

Jax Fish House & Oyster Bar :: 928 Pearl St.

GOT A SWEET TOOTH

If you like gelato, you'll want to indulge in the small-batch gelato and frozen yogurt at Two Spoons. Flavors change daily, but you are sure to leave satisfied! For a sweet dessert, you can't miss with the Sticky Toffee Pudding at the Kitchen. It is unforgettable!

Two Spoons :: 1021 Pearl St.

The Kitchen :: 1039 Pearl St.

LOOKING TO IMBIBE IN A MARGARITA

Tahona Tequila Bistro has quite the beverage menu. Try a tequila flight or the Mezcal Madness Margarita for a smoky sip. Be sure to grab a few soft tacos in addition! An equally delicious option is the Centro Coin Margarita. You may want to enjoy the food here as well. The Baja style tacos are particularly yummy.

Tahona Tequila Bistro :: 1035 Pearl St.

Centro Latin Kitchen & Refreshment Place :: 950 Pearl St.

INTERESTED IN TRYING SOME COLORADO CRAFT BREWS

Head down Walnut Street to Boulder's original brewpub, Walnut Brewery. The handcrafted beer is always brewed onsite using the freshest ingredients and handpicked hops to create award-winning brews. Or try the featured brews of the month at the Satellite Tap Room at West End Tavern. Each month they feature a new local brewery's brews to savor.

Walnut Brewery :: 1123 Walnut St.

West End Tavern :: 926 Pearl St.

INTERESTED IN JAPANESE

For a city that is pretty far from the ocean, Boulder boasts a wonderfully fresh sushi scene. Head to Japango for the town's largest sake collection and the famous El Corazon and Colorado rolls. Or walk across the street to Hapa for some modern Hawaiian-Japanese fusion. The XXX Roll with olive-oil seared hamachi, jalapeños, and ponzu is sure to please.

Japango :: 1136 Pearl St.

Hapa Sushi Grill & Sake Bar :: 1117 Pearl St.